 EDISON emperor

The Hunger Project UK is a registered charity in England & Wales 1164839 and a company limited by guarantee registered in England & Wales 9583057.

Who will emerge victorious from the muddiest trenches, cargo net climbs, tyre walls, pontoon lake crossings and the unforgettable Hell River to be crowned the top corporate, legal, accounting, banking or advisory team in the City of London? And better still, you'll be raising vital funds to support The Hunger Project's work empowering people in 17,000 villages to sustainably end their own hunger!

The Challenger

We're inviting teams of four to tackle this ultimate 5km obstacle course. Once briefed and equipped with a timing chip each team will be let loose on the course – prepare to get muddy!

Whilst everyone will get an individual finishing time, your team time will be that of your last finisher – team work will be essential. (This course can be completed in 36 minutes, up to 120 minutes).

You'll need plenty of energy to tackle obstacles that will include: 'Good Morning Vietnam', 'Chindits Revenge' 'The Bunker', 'Kamikaze', 'Somme', 'The Wall' and last but not least 'Hell River'.

Team Costs

The registration fee for each team of four is £400.00 to cover event costs and the suggested initial donation towards The Hunger Project is £400.00. Teams are of course strongly encouraged to raise additional funds and so we'll set up a fundraising page for each team.

After Challenge Party

Food, drinks, firepit, games, music, goodie bags.

Location

Approximately 40 minutes from central London and just 10 minutes from Gatwick. Trains run direct from London Victoria and Waterloo every 10 minutes to Dorking station. The course is famous for holding The Nuts Challenge "Probably the longest military assault course in the world" you'll be taking on the first 5km – not for the faint-hearted.
